GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS

1. Submit one original and four clear copies of each manuscript to Henry D. Schlinger, Jr., Editor, 4415 Ledge Ave., Los Angeles, California 91602.
2. Include with the original version of the manuscript a separate title page containing the author name(s), affiliation(s), mailing address, E-mail address, telephone number, a running head, and several key words for indexing purposes. Also, include a separate Author Notes page with any acknowledgments and a correspondence (mail and E-mail) address. Because the reviewers are anonymous, authors should make every attempt not to reveal their identity in the manuscript.
3. Authors may also suggest up to three possible reviewers for their manuscript, although selection of reviewers is up to the discretion of the editor.
4. Use APA guidelines for style and organization.

Society for the Advancement of Behavior Analysis

Apply by March 1st for the Sidney W. and Janet R. Bijou Fellowship Program

Origin

In December 1996, Dr. Sidney W. and Janet R. Bijou donated a substantial amount of money to SABA to establish the Sidney W. and Janet R. Bijou Fellowship Program.

Fellowship Objective

The objective of the Sidney W. and Janet R. Bijou Fellowship Program is to enable doctoral students to study child development from a behavior-analytic perspective.

The Fellowship will provide a grant for one student per year in a doctoral program in psychology or education, in which it is possible to conduct research in behavioral child development. For the academic year of 2001-2002 the Fellowship will provide a grant of $5,000. The recipient may apply for renewal of the Fellowship for one additional year.

Criteria for Applicants

GPA and Letters of Recommendation

Applicants must have a high Grade Point Average (GPA) and must obtain at least two letters of recommendation in support of their application.

Professional Commitment

Applicants must be committed to the study and research of child development from a behavior-analytic perspective.

Academic Level

Applicants must be enrolled or have been accepted as a first or second year student in a doctoral program in a department of psychology or education, in which there are a sufficient number of behaviorally oriented faculty members to sponsor and supervise research in child development.

Nationality of the Student and Location of the Program

There are no constraints on the recipient's nationality or on the country in which the university is located.

Selection Procedure

The SABA Board of Directors constitutes the Fellowship Selection Committee. The SABA Board consists of the full members of the ABA Executive Council and SABA's Executive Director & Secretary-Treasurer.

The Fellowship Selection Committee will select the applicant at the Spring Board Meeting. The Fellowship recipient will be announced during the SABA Awards Ceremony in the opening event of ABA's Annual Convention and the recipients name will be published in The ABA Newsletter.

Application Procedure

Application Documents

Those students who are interested in applying for the Sidney W. and Janet R. Bijou Fellowship Program should submit the following documents to the SABA office:

- ◆ A résumé or curriculum vitae.
- ◆ A one-page, typed description of the applicant's professional objectives.
- ◆ A description of the doctoral program in which the applicant is enrolled, including a list of courses in child psychology with instructors' names, and a list of topics in child psychology being currently investigated, if any.
- ◆ A transcript or other record of GPA.
- ◆ Two letters of recommendation.

Deadline for Submissions

Fellowship applications for the 2001-2002 academic year must be received at the SABA office by March 1, 2001

Methodological and Conceptual Issues in Applied Behavior Analysis

*Reprint Volume 4
2nd Edition
1968-1999*

from the

Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis

The ad hoc editors have examined every article published in JABA over the past 31 years and have compiled an authoritative and up-to-date reference on applied research in the area of developmental disabilities. The volume has been organized so as to be an invaluable primary source of information for applied researchers, program and training directors, and teachers/therapists who work with handicapped individuals. Sixty-seven key articles are fully reprinted, covering the following topics:

- Nature of Applied Behavior Analysis
- Science, theory and teaching
- Measurement
- Interobserver agreement
- Treatment integrity
- Experimental design
- Data analysis
- Social validity
- Conceptual issues
- Research, training and professional practice
- Trends in applied behavior analysis

This 700 page volume also contains a full bibliographic listing of all articles published in JABA on the above topics.

ABA Membership Information

Reduced Membership Fees for International Members

We are excited to offer, for the first time, discounts in membership fees for international members who live in countries that have incomes per capita that are <75% of the United States'.

Membership fees have been divided into four groups. Category A fees are for members in counties with income per capita within 25% of the US'. Category B fees are for members in counties with income per capita between 50% and 75% of the US'. Category C fees are for members in counties with income per capita between 25% and 50% of the US'. Category D fees are for members in counties with income per capita <25% of the US'.

Membership fees have not changed in Category A. Members in Category B will receive a 25% discount; in Category C, a 40% discount; and in Category D, a 60% discount. Income per capita information was obtained from the US Department of Commerce, International Trade Administration, 1998. Source data is available on the Web at <http://ia.ita.doc.gov/wages/> or by calling the ABA office. Members with permanent residency in the following countries may use the International Membership Form:

Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, France, Greece, Korea, Mexico, Peru, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, Spain, Turkey and Venezuela. If your country of residency is not listed here, but you feel that you qualify for reduced membership based on the income per capita of your country of residency, contact the ABA office at 76236.1312@compuserve.com or by fax at (616) 387-8354.

Sustaining and Supporting Members

Sustaining and supporting members are eligible to vote on ABA business matters and to participate in the nomination and election of officers. Through their contributions, sustaining and supporting members help support the involvement of undergraduate and graduate students in the science and practice of behavior analysis. Benefits: Citation in The ABA Newsletter and the Convention Program Book, subscriptions to The ABA Newsletter and The Behavior Analyst, and reduced convention registration fees. Requirements: Same as Full Members.

Full Members

Full members are eligible to vote on ABA business matters and to participate in the nominations and election of officers. Full member dues help support the involvement of undergraduate and graduate students in behavior analysis science and practice. Benefits: Subscriptions to The ABA Newsletter and The Behavior Analyst, and reduced convention registration fees. Requirement: A master's degree in experimental or applied behavior analysis or contributions to the field of behavior analysis; Send vita and course records when requesting this status for the first time (fill out the check list on this page).

Affiliate Members

Affiliate status is designed for persons who have an interest in behavior analysis or have completed undergraduate credit, but do not meet the full member requirements. Affiliate member dues help support the involvement of undergraduate and graduate students in the science and practice of behavior analysis. Benefits:

Subscriptions to The ABA Newsletter and The Behavior Analyst and reduced convention registration fees. Requirement: Send a letter of recommendation from a voting member of ABA.

Emeritus Members

Emeritus status is designed for persons who are over the age of 65 or retired. Benefits: Subscriptions to The ABA Newsletter and The Behavior Analyst, and reduced convention registration fees. Requirement: Send verification of retirement or age when requesting this status for the first time.

Chapter/Adjunct Member

Chapter/adjunct members are members of an ABA-affiliated chapter. Benefits: Subscriptions to The ABA Newsletter and special membership dues and convention registration fees. Requirement: A letter from the chapter confirming chapter membership must be sent annually at the time of membership renewal.

Student Members

Student Members are full-time undergraduate or graduate students, residents, or interns. Benefits: Subscriptions to The ABA Newsletter and The Behavior Analyst, and special membership dues and convention registration fees. Requirement: Send verification of full-time student, intern, or resident status with your application.

How to Become a Member

To become a member of the Association for Behavior Analysis, fill out the ABA 2001 Membership Form, include payment and all supporting documentation, and mail to the ABA office. If you are paying by credit card, you may fax your Membership Form with all supporting documentation to the ABA office at (616) 387-8354. Please fill out and send both sides of the form. To receive a Membership Form, you may contact the ABA office or visit the ABA Web site at: <http://www.wmich.edu/aba>

Voting Member Status Determination

If you are applying for the first time as a Full, Supporting, or Sustaining Membership, you must show evidence of at least a Master's degree in psychology or a related discipline. Send your vita and complete the following checklist:

- ☐ My training included a minimum of one year's supervised experience in behavior analysis, and my graduate project, thesis, or dissertation was in experimental or applied behavior analysis.
- ☐ I have had two or more years of supervised experience in experimental or applied behavior analysis.
- ☐ I have made significant contributions to the knowledge in behavior analysis evidenced by research publications, presentations at professional conventions, or by other comparable means (your vita should reflect such contributions).
